1	PROCEEDINGS
2	THE COURT: Please be seated. We're here in
3	Residential Capital, number 12-12020. We're here in connection
4	with an evidentiary hearing arising from debtors' thirtieth
5	omnibus objection to claims, specifically with respect to the
6	claims of Paul and Marge Pfunder.
7	Mr. Wishnew?
8	MR. WISHNEW: Thank you, Your Honor. Jordan Wishnew,
9	Morrison & Foerster, for the ResCap Borrower Claims Trust.
LO	As Your Honor noted, this is a claim originally
.1	subject to the debtors' thirtieth omnibus objection. There was
L 2	some
L3	THE COURT: Let me before you go ahead. I assume
L 4	that's the Pfunders that are sitting there. Why don't you
L 5	introduce yourself to the Court? Just give me your names.
. 6	MS. PFUNDER: I'm Marge Pfunder. This is just my
.7	brother Vincent.
8	THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. All right.
L9	MS. PFUNDER: His last name is Semnatory (ph.).
20	THE COURT: Okay. Thanks.
21	Go ahead, Mr. Wishnew.
22	MR. WISHNEW: Thank you, Your Honor. So we are here
23	after some back and forth with regards to the Pfunder's claim.

Originally the debtors filed their omnibus objection. Mr. and

Ms. Pfunder put in their response. There was an initial hearing, and the Court asked that this go forward to an evidentiary hearing. On October 18th, there was a procedures order put in place requiring that, by no later than October 25th, the debtors and Silverman Acampora, as borrower's counsel to the creditors' committee, put in their respective pleadings concerning the issue of wrongful denial of a loan modification application and that the debtors file and serve a supplemental declaration detailing the facts of the Pfunder's claims as they relate to law on denial of a loan modification application, annexing any documents in the debtors' possession, custody or control relating to such loan modification request by the respondents.

The debtors put in that response, or their memorandum, and Ms. Horst's supporting declaration. That is found at docket number 5548. Ms. Deanna Horst, the chief claims officer for the ResCap Liquidating Trust, is in court today, and subject to any questions that Your Honor or Mr. or Ms. Pfunder may have, at this time, as a matter of evidence, I'd ask that her declaration be put into evidence, subject to any crossexamination.

THE COURT: So first let me say that, obviously, Ms. Pfunder, you're not a lawyer, correct?

MS. PFUNDER: Correct.

THE COURT: Okay. And I will address the issue about your offer of the supplemental Horst declaration, but let me just say something about the background of the proceeding that we're having this afternoon.

The debtor obviously filed its twenty-second omnibus objection, which is at ECF docket 4199, and the twenty-seventh omnibus objection, which is at 4735, and the thirtieth omnibus objection at 4887. All of these related to -- I'll just categorize as loan modification claims. And because of the number of claims that borrowers had filed in the ResCap cases, that appeared to derive in whole or in part from efforts to seek a loan modification, the Court did a number of things. One, as you've indicated, I had entered an order requiring the debtors' counsel and the special counsel to the creditors' committee for borrower's issues to file briefs addressing causes of action arising in the loan modification context. And both of those briefs were filed. Not to take anything away from the debtors' brief, I think the Silverman Acampora brief -- particularly because I see Mr. Nosek's in the courtroom -- filed on behalf of the creditors' committee, I think, provided -- provides a particularly useful road map for the Court and for pro se parties, in addressing issues arising from loan modifications.

And Ms. Pfunder, I take it you got -- you received a copy of those briefs?

MS. PFUNDER: I believe so, yes.

THE COURT: Okay. So when I entered the order establishing procedures, that's dated October 18th, 2013, it addressed a number of borrower's claims. The only one we're hearing today is with respect to Paul and Marge Pfunder. But I want to make reference to the second and third pages of that procedures order, because in paragraph number 3, which begins at the bottom of page 2, and carrying over -- I won't read the entire paragraph, but I said, "The debtors must file and serve a supplemental declaration detailing the facts of the respondents' claims as they relate to the law on denial of a loan modification application, annexing any documents in the debtors' possession, custody or control relating to any loan modification request made by the respondents."

So Mr. Wishnew, I received a binder with the pleadings relating to all of the claims. The only one we're going forward with today is with respect to the Pfunders. And the supplemental Horst declaration is attached as Exhibit 1 to the debtors' memorandum of law in further support of the debtors' thirtieth omnibus objections to claims. It's at ECF -- that memorandum is at 5548. And Exhibit 1 to that is the Horst declaration. And Exhibit B to the memorandum is -- it's headed -- and it's ECF 5548-1 -- "Pfunder Loan Modification Documents, Proof of Claim 1430". And attached to it are a number of pages of documents.

You've offered in evidence the "Second Supplemental Declaration Of Deanna Horst, In Support Of The Debtors' Thirtieth Omnibus Claim Objection, (No Liability Borrower Claims - Books And Records)", which is ECF 5548-1. And the problem I have is most of this is pure hearsay, not admissible.

And I'll refer to paragraph 3, because this is what I, in particular, have a question about. And it reads, "The claims addressed in this supplemental declaration are claims relating to loan modifications either offered or denied by the To address the allegations made in these claims and in the respective responses, I, or other employees of the debtors under my supervision, examined the debtors' books and records to verify that the debtors took the appropriate steps in considering each loan modification application and in communicating to the claimant the applicable reason for denying an application. These examinations included a review of the claimant's payment history and the debtors' internal servicing notes for the claimant's loan. In addition, where applicable, my team reviewed the claimant's loan modification applications, loan modification approval letters, loan modification denial letters, compliance with loan modifications (trial and/or permanent), and the claimant's compliance with any other payment plans. In addition, the debtors reviewed the relevant investor guidelines and/or directions relating to loan modification requests."

And in paragraph 7 of the declaration, on page -- beginning at the bottom of page 4, the declaration refers to:

"The forbearance plans were offered by customer service representatives of the debtors' call center". And further on in that paragraph 7 it says, "Forbearance plans were oral agreements and there was no signature required of a borrower to consummate the plan."

Beginning on page 7, specifically, the declaration deals with the claim of Paul and Marge Pfunder. And in paragraph 16 on page 8, it refers to what the servicing records reflect. And in paragraph 17, it refers to both traditional and HAMP modification requests. And paragraph 20 and 21 on page 10 refer to more activities specifically in respect of the Pfunders.

And it more or less concludes in paragraph 21 -- it says, in part, "Based on the debtors' review of their books and records, the debtors do not have any liability with respect to the Pfunder claim because the debtors assert that they complied with the appropriate guidelines and policies governing the loan modification process at all times and acted promptly and in good faith with respect to Mr. and Ms. Pfunder's loan modification requests."

Where are the servicing notes?

MR. WISHNEW: The servicing notes are maintained on an electronic database.

THE COURT: Can they be printed out?

MR. WISHNEW: Do you want me to, Your Honor?

THE COURT: Yeah, they should have been -- look, I entered an order that required -- the debtors were supposed to annex "any documents in the debtors' possession, custody or control relating to any loan modification request made by the respondents". And Ms. Horst's supplemental declaration talks, in some detail, in length, about what's in the debtors' books and records, but you haven't provided it. You provided a handful of documents, a small number of documents that relate to the denial of the Pfunder's loan modification request. don't -- I don't have the documents. I don't have the servicing notes. What I have is a hearsay declaration that discusses what's in books and records, not that Ms. Horst prepared. She's relying -- and it may well be she could rely on what people employed; she could establish their business records. I don't have the business records. You haven't provided me with the business records. The order provided you provide the documents. What's your response to that? MR. WISHNEW: With the exception of the servicing notes, which can be printed out, the other documents that are referenced, for instance, the forbearance plan, the traditional modifications, those, in the ordinary course, were not maintained by the debtors. THE COURT: Are you telling me that the servicing notes -- so --

MR. WISHNEW: The servicing note --

THE COURT: Wait. Ms. Horst was able to put in her supplemental declaration what the terms of the forbearance plan were. She had to have gotten that, I assume, from the servicing notes.

MR. WISHNEW: Correct, You're Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. The declaration refers to investor guidelines. Where are the investor guidelines?

MR. WISHNEW: The investor guidelines -- again, I would probably defer back to the servicing notes, and --

THE COURT: Do you know that -- do you know -- look, this is not the first matter in which I've been told that any decision about loan modification depends on the investor guidelines. So as I understand it, this loan was originated by Quicken.

MR. WISHNEW: Correct, Your Honor.

THE COURT: I don't know whether it was -- I didn't find anything in anything I read that indicated that Quicken sold the loan. Did it sell it to RFC? Did it sell it to any one of the debtors? Is it in a secur -- did the debtor buy it, put it in a securitization trust? Where was the loan when the Pfunders made each of their loan modification requests? What were the applicable investor guidelines at the time the loan modification requests were filed? I don't think there's any ambiguity about what I ordered be provided, and you haven't done that.

Honor.

I understand your position, Your Honor. MR. WISHNEW: What I can say is that while Ms. Horst doesn't have the servicing notes in front of her, she would be recalling upon her reviewing of the servicing notes and anything that her colleagues have advised her with regards to the servicing notes, in conjunction with or to further supplement her declaration today. The declaration -- the offer of the THE COURT: declaration is denied. The declaration, to the extent it's relevant at all in this proceeding, is hearsay. evidence of what are the loan modifications -- I don't know whether it refers to correspondence. There are some documents that are attached as Exhibit B. There's a few documents that are attached, so obviously there are some documents that exist. I don't know whether there are others. There are references in the declaration to much more. Let me ask you this; who owns the loan now? MR. WISHNEW: At this point, I would say, to the best of our knowledge, it's still Quicken, given that we haven't had a -- sorry; it's Freddie Mac who currently owns the loan, Your

THE COURT: When was it transferred from Quicken to Freddie Mac?

MR. WISHNEW: I'm not quite sure, Your Honor.

THE COURT: At the time the Pfunders sought their loan

14

1	modification, who owned the loan?
2	MR. WISHNEW: Freddie Mac, Your Honor.
3	THE COURT: Did Freddie Mac have lender guidelines for
4	determining when to grant a loan modification?
5	MR. WISHNEW: Yes, Your Honor.
6	THE COURT: Is it in writing? It may have changed. I
7	mean, a lot of the loan a lot of the lender guidelines
8	change from time to time. So what's relevant is what were the
9	applicable guidelines at the times, and it was more than one
10	occasion when the Pfunders sought a loan modification.
11	So do the servicing notes I understand from the
12	declaration, the Horst declaration, that the forbearance
13	agreement was oral
14	MR. WISHNEW: That's correct, Your Honor.
15	THE COURT: it was offered orally.
16	MR. WISHNEW: Yes.
17	THE COURT: And would I be wrong to think that the
18	terms that were offered are set forth in the servicing notes?
19	MR. WISHNEW: It would be you would be correct that
20	it would be in the servicing notes.
21	THE COURT: And there seems to be a dispute as to
22	whether the Pfunders accepted the forbearance plan or not. The
23	debtor says yes; Ms. Pfunder, in the statement of position,
24	said no.
25	MR. WISHNEW: I would just say, Your Honor, the forbearance plan was basically an agreement to forbear from any further foreclosure proceedings, so long as Mr. and Mrs.

Pfunder continued to make the prior monthly payment that they had been making.

THE COURT: That's nice of you to say that, but your statement is not evidence.

MR. WISHNEW: Understood, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Here's what I want to do today. I want to give Ms. Pfunder an opportunity to provide sworn testimony to support the Pfunder's claims. It seems to the Court -- and here I rely, in part, on the special borrower's counsel's memorandum of law -- that I think, fairly read, the Pfunder claim raises potentially five causes of action under California law.

Do you agree that California law controls?

MR. WISHNEW: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. Contract claims, promissory estoppel, breach of implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, I'll treat them together -- fraud and misrepresentation claims; they're obviously separate. And California unfair competition claims; this is the Business and Professions Code in California. And I think, related to that, the Pfunders have asserted claims under the California False Advertising Law. In preparing for the hearing, I've tried to consider what are the elements of the causes of actions under each of those theories.

But I think the way I want to proceed here is -- Ms. Pfunder has come from California for this hearing, and there was some confusion earlier, I think. I don't think it was confusing. I ordered that any hearing take place here; she's here today. So I want to give her a chance to testify. I'm going to permit her, initially, to testify in the narrative form. That means I'm going to give you a -- you're going to come up; that's the witness box up there, Ms. Pfunder. And -- just hang on a second.

MS. PFUNDER: Oh, okay.

THE COURT: You'll come up, you'll be sworn by the reporter.

MS. PFUNDER: Okay.

THE COURT: And I want you to tell me whatever you want to say in support of your claims. I may have some questions for you. If Mr. Wishnew or his colleague wants to cross-examine you after, they'll be able to do that. It won't be -- you know, this is -- I understand you're not a lawyer, but this is not a -- no one's going to be brow beating you, okay? But I want to give you a chance to go ahead and tell the Court why you think you should be able to recover.

Now, I would say, in addition, that the procedures order that I entered, I've referred to what I believe ResCap didn't do, namely, provide these documents. But the order, in paragraph 4 -- this is the October 18th order -- required you to do two things: provide the Court and counsel any documents that you wanted to use in support of your claim, any documents -- and I said any documents not provided, by the deadline that I set, wouldn't be considered at the evidentiary hearing. And then the next subparagraph said, "A statement of the respondent's position with respect to his or her claim" -- and you did provide a statement -- "including both the legal and evidentiary reasons why the respondent believes that he or she is entitled to an allowed claim in the debtors' bankruptcy proceedings". But then it said, "and an itemized statement of the damages asserted in the respondent's claim", and you haven't given me that.

It makes it hard for the Court to have a hearing as to whether you have a claim. What I wanted to know, what's an itemization of what it is that you believe you're entitled to recover. But -- so I don't want Mr. Wishnew to feel that they're the only ones who I'm picking on about not having provided what I said needed to be provided. Okay.

So that's how we're going to proceed for now. After hearing your testimony, if I have some questions, I may ask them. And Mr. Wishnew or his colleague, if they want to cross-examine you, they can do that. Okay? Do you have anybody else who's going to testify other than yourself?

MS. PFUNDER: No, sir.

1	THE COURT: Okay. And Mr. Wishnew, do you have
2	witnesses that you're going to call?
3	MR. WISHNEW: It would only be Ms. Horst, at this
4	point.
5	THE COURT: Okay. All right. Okay. So Ms. Pfunder,
6	why don't you come up? If you've got papers you want to bring,
7	notes that you want, you can bring them with you, and certainly
8	I'll permit you to look at those. When you come up to the box
9	you just need to, while you're standing, raise your right hand.
10	And yeah, you can go back over to where you're going to sit
11	down. Okay. Okay. So just raise your right hand.
12	(Witness sworn)
13	THE COURT: Okay. Please have a seat. Pull the seat
14	in a little bit, and pull the microphone toward you.
15	THE WITNESS: Okay.
16	THE COURT: It's important that we have a clear
17	record. So what happens is a transcript can be prepared from
18	everything that's being said here.
19	THE WITNESS: Okay.
20	THE COURT: Okay. So I want to give you a chance
21	you're under oath, and I want to give you a chance to explain
22	your claim and any reason you think you ought to be able to
23	recover against the debtors, okay?
24	THE WITNESS: Okay.
25	THE COURT: All right.

19 1 DIRECT EXAMINATION 2 BY MS. PFUNDER: THE WITNESS: In 2008, I was gainfully employed, and 3 my husband's employment was drifting off. At that time we were 4 5 up on all of our payments. We had paid our mortgage for twenty years, twenty solid years, and I tried to enter into the loan 6 7 modification, knowing that the income was going to change. Αt 8 the time, we were not behind, and we were informed by GMAC 9 that, until we're behind, they wouldn't even entertain a loan 10 modification. So we kept making the payments as best we could, and pretty much, we just couldn't get anything done then. 11 12 I don't know how -- at some point they said, yeah, okay, we'll 13 deal with you. I don't know if we stopped the payments; I 14 really don't remember that well. 15 THE COURT: This was when, 2008? THE WITNESS: It all started in 2008. 16 17 THE COURT: Okay. 18 THE WITNESS: So I was still gainfully employed, and I think they started the process --19 20 THE COURT: You were a legal secretary; did I read 21 that? 22 THE WITNESS: Yes. Yes. So it was being dragged on, 23 dragged on. Every three months we had to provide them with pay this just -- they kept offering us something that we didn't -- stubs, bank statements, all -- income taxes, everything.

we didn't accept because it was not beneficial to us in any way. All it did was extend our loan, reduce the payments by very little, and we just didn't feel, in good faith, that we could -- we could make that payment. And so it never happened.

And then I hired someone in 2009 to try to help us with the modification; we were denied at that time also. And the process was still going on, and then the correspondence was going back and forth, the documents were going back and forth.

And finally we came to 2010, when they offered us a loan modification that was pretty bizarre, in our opinion. It reduced our mod -- reduced the payment about twenty dollars a month. It extended my loan for ten years. It did not give us a fixed loan, which is what we had always had. And it asked for a contribution, however that term means; it was a large sum of money, eight or nine thousand dollars, which if someone needs a modification, they sure don't have eight or nine thousand dollars.

What I have to -- to show as evidence, and I don't know if it could be admitted, but I could at least state it, in 2008 they told us that we did not qualify to make the payments. We had a yearly salary of 33,000 dollars, so --

THE COURT: That was your combined income for the two of you?

THE WITNESS: Yes. So we clearly could have made the payments at that time. And that's when they said we did not qualify. In 2009 and 2010, our income went down to 10,000 dollars. And in 2010 is when they told me we were qualified for the loan modification if we made that large contribution and all of the other terms that I just outlined: The increase of the loan, the variable rate, and all of that.

And my point is, if I couldn't qualify in 2008, making 33,000 dollars a year, how did I possibly qualify for a loan modification in 2009 and 2010, which I present as deceitful. And in my estimation, it's very deceitful, because the numbers couldn't possibly add up to me making -- or my husband and I making a payment. So of course we didn't enter those modifications because we knew we couldn't do that. knew -- in our opinion, they knew we couldn't do that. could you possibly qualify to make a 1,600 or something dollar a month mortgage payment if you didn't qualify, making two times that amount, two years prior? And I have copies of the income taxes to show that. And they knew what our income was. They were getting these bank statements. They were getting the They were getting our pay stubs. income tax. They were getting profit and loss for my husband. They knew --

THE COURT: Your husband was a contractor, is that -THE WITNESS: He's a carpenter/handyman. So they knew what our income was. And I guess my ultimate point is I see no reason that they would have approved us for a loan modification in 2010, seeing those numbers, when they didn't approve us when we made another 23,000 dollars more a month (sic) every year. 1 2 It just doesn't add up. So I think that was very deceitful. I wanted to kind of refer to -- could I refer to the 3 4 debtors' thirtieth omnibus objection? 5 THE COURT: Yes, you can. THE WITNESS: Okay. In there -- and here's where 6 7 they -- on page 23, they're saying that we'd requested a 8 traditional loan modification. It was denied because the 9 payment options at the time of the request were not affordable. And this is in 2008. They were affordable. 10 I mean, that was 11 the whole --12 THE COURT: Let me -- I'll let you go on, but did they 13 make a proposal to you in 2008 for a loan modification? 14 Because I thought you were saying that they made it, but you --15 THE WITNESS: I don't --THE COURT: -- you couldn't do it. 16 17 THE WITNESS: I don't think it benefitted us any --18 THE COURT: Yes. 19 THE WITNESS: -- at the time. I think we could have 20 made the --THE COURT: No, here's the -- the only point I'm 21 22 trying to inquire about is -- and which I want to be clear 23 about is, whether they made a specific proposal. I understand 24 you're saying you couldn't afford it. 25 THE WITNESS: Um-hum.

THE COURT: Okay. But to say you couldn't afford it leads me to conclude they made a proposal, you evaluated it, and you and your husband concluded they made it but we can't afford that.
THE WITNESS: At this point, I can't say yes or no, because we recently moved, with the loss of the house, and
THE COURT: Yeah.
THE WITNESS: and I lost most of those documents.
THE COURT: Okay.
THE WITNESS: And I know the debtor has those documents. So I can't say what we were thinking at the time.
Maybe yes; maybe no. I don't remember, and I don't have the documentation to prove one way or the other.
THE COURT: All right. Go ahead.
THE WITNESS: And then further, on page 23, they're saying that the monthly payment in the forbearance was 1,418.
I don't remember it ever being that low. But like, again, I say, I don't have those documents.
THE COURT: What was do you remember what your monthly payment under the
THE WITNESS: It was 1,600 and something, probably
THE COURT: And that was a variable loan variable-rate loan?
THE WITNESS: No, that was a fixed.
THE COURT: Fixed?

	24
1	THE WITNESS: That was a fixed.
2	THE COURT: Thirty-year fixed?
3	THE WITNESS: Well, that might
4	THE COURT: I thought it was not, but I might be
5	wrong.
6	THE WITNESS: I think it was a variable. What
7	happened was we did some refinancing, and I think it did go to
8	a variable, that last one. But prior to that we always had a
9	fixed, which is what we always wanted, and that's what we
10	wanted again.
11	Let me see. Then in 2009, they said we were approved
12	for a traditional loan modification, and with that
13	contribution. And now, it doesn't state what the contribution
14	was, but I know it was about eight or nine thousand dollars. I
15	can say that I know two other people because many of us have
16	lost our homes through things like this
17	THE COURT: Right.
18	THE WITNESS: I know two other people that went
19	through something like this, gave a contribution, and the bank
20	still foreclosed on them after they got the money. So I
21	really you know, I didn't trust the bank. That's
22	THE COURT: Did
23	THE WITNESS: The other thing is
24	THE COURT: But did they make here's where I'm a
25	little unclear whether this was a because I think you read

		25
1	that it was a traditional loan modification.
2	THE WITNESS: That's what it says on the documents.
3	THE COURT: And did you get it in writing from them?
4	I mean, did they say, okay, we're willing to a do a loan
5	modification, the terms are monthly payments of X
6	THE WITNESS: I believe I did.
7	THE COURT: Okay.
8	THE WITNESS: I believe I did.
9	THE COURT: And you don't have a copy of that
10	anywhere?
11	THE WITNESS: No, I don't. That's
12	THE COURT: All right.
13	THE WITNESS: my problem. So that was the offer
14	that was made in 2009. And like I like I mentioned before	·
15	our income was down to 10,000 dollars in 2009.
16	THE COURT: So it's fair to say that you and your
17	husband didn't accept that offer.
18	THE WITNESS: No. Well, in good faith, what
19	THE COURT: I understand.
20	THE WITNESS: what could I do?
21	THE COURT: I'm not questioning
22	THE WITNESS: Yeah, I
23	THE COURT: I'm not challenging you on it.
24	THE WITNESS: Yeah, I
25	THE COURT: I just want to make sure that I understand	Ł

		26
1	completely.
2	THE WITNESS: We figured this
3	THE COURT: They made an offer; you didn't accept it.
4	THE WITNESS: Yeah, right. It was ridiculous
5	THE COURT: Because you couldn't
6	THE WITNESS: for us.
7	THE COURT: afford it
8	THE WITNESS: Right.
9	THE COURT: in your view.
10	THE WITNESS: Then I guess they reviewed our account
11	again for traditional, and another one was offered in January
12	of 2010.
13	THE COURT: So I know you're reading from
14	THE WITNESS: From their
15	THE COURT: from their you're not disagreeing
16	with the chronology they set out?
17	THE WITNESS: No. No. I am
18	THE COURT: You believe the chronology is accurate?
19	THE WITNESS: I I believe so.
20	THE COURT: Okay.
21	THE WITNESS: And then they're saying it was
22	ultimately denied in April. I'm trying to
23	THE COURT: Is that consistent with your memory?
24	THE WITNESS: I think so, yes. There were lots of
25	stalling tactics through this loan modification. Loan modifications aren't supposed to take two years, as far as I I -- I really don't know, other than one person that's ever been granted a legitimate loan modification. And I know in the forbearance they had mentioned that all of the notice of default and everything would stop on our home. I don't believe I don't have the documentation, but I believe we that's true. were still getting notices of default. THE COURT: So there came some point in time where you stopped paying the mortgage? THE WITNESS: Yes. THE COURT: Do you remember when that was? THE WITNESS: It -- I'm thinking it was either very late in '08 or -- I think it was more in '09 -- 2009. THE COURT: Were you making partial payments or just no payments at all? THE WITNESS: We -- we weren't making any payments at all. THE COURT: Okay. Were you paying taxes on the property? THE WITNESS: I don't think so. I'm not sure. don't think so. We didn't see any way out. We just figured we were going to lose our home, that, you know -- as far as damages, I know I can't -- I didn't provide that, which I --I -- that's my mistake that I made. I'd like to go over some of the things. Aside from losing the home, which was our dream home that we -- that we invested in. I think they knew we were good risk in 2008, based on our history of -- I mean, twenty years of payments is still twenty years of payments. addition to that, my husband did a lot of upgrades to the house. And I do estimate those at about 40,000 dollars or so. And I -- I apologize for not providing you with an itemization. I kind of have jotted some things down here, some of the things This -- this house was also the -- you know, it was going to be our retirement home. THE COURT: Where is the house? THE WITNESS: It's in Murrieta, in the Temecula So I feel that after -- when we were in the process of the short sale, because we figured this is a no -- no-win situation, how do we --THE COURT: Tell me about that. Did you -- when did you decide to --THE WITNESS: The short sale --THE COURT: -- sell? THE WITNESS: -- I think we started in 2010, around the time that this last one was denied. THE COURT: Now, did you have a discussion with ResCap GMAC before you started your efforts to sell your house? THE WITNESS: Yes. As a matter of fact, they told us, oh, well, you should just sell the house because you can't do anything, and you know, and we're not going to do anything to help you, basically, so you might as well sell the house. So we entered into the short sale thinking okay, this is the only way that we can cut our losses.

THE COURT: Did you market it through a broker?

THE WITNESS: Yes. Yes. It wasn't what we wanted to do, but we were trying to save our credit --

THE COURT: Okay.

THE WITNESS: -- and everything else. While the short sale was going on, and we had many offers on the house, GMAC continued to harass us, almost on a daily basis at times.

THE COURT: Explain what you mean.

THE WITNESS: They would call us and they would ask us to pay the -- to pay the -- pay the payments -- pay what was, you know, back owed. And I would tell them, we're in the middle of a short sale; under California law, you're not supposed to harass us when we tell you -- if a debtor keeps calling you, I believe that the debtor is not supposed to continue to call you when you tell them to stop calling you. Well, they told me that they didn't care what California law was; they were just going to do whatever they were going to do. And we actually stopped answering the phone because it never And so they continued to ask us for the back due stopped. I told them it's in the middle of a short sale, it's payments. being sold, it's not going to be ours anymore, and it's -- it's all going to be taken care of. They didn't care about that 30

1	either.
2	THE COURT: Let me ask you something else. Had you
3	received verbal or written approval from any of the debtors to
4	go ahead with a short sale?
5	THE WITNESS: I I believe so.
6	THE COURT: You had something you think you had
7	something in writing?
8	THE WITNESS: I know my broker does. I don't
9	THE COURT: Okay.
10	THE WITNESS: but I know the broker does.
11	THE COURT: All right. How much was the balance of
12	the mortgage at the time you sold it?
13	THE WITNESS: I think it was around 433, or something
14	like that.
15	THE COURT: And what
16	THE WITNESS: It sold for
17	THE COURT: what did you net on the sale? Well, I
18	know you didn't net anything
19	THE WITNESS: Yeah.
20	THE COURT: but what were the proceeds of the sale?
21	THE WITNESS: I believe it sold for about 211,000.
22	THE COURT: So you raised in your statement I think
23	at the hearing, which I said this was a contested matter you
24	participated by telephone in that, right?
25	THE WITNESS: Yes.

THE COURT: Okay. And during that hearing, you raised the issue on the phone about the calls you received --

THE WITNESS: Um-hum.

THE COURT: -- from GMAC, and you referred to it as harassment, and it's in your statement of position again. But your proof of claim doesn't say anything about harassment; it deals with the denial of the short sale. And I raise it now because -- and the debtors' counsel may well raise it. You see, ordinarily, you're sort of bound by what you put in the proof of claim. And this seems to be the first time that I heard from you, or read anything from you, in which you complained about collection calls -- let me just call it that -- was in the telephone hearing. Okay? But there's nothing in the proof of claim about it. Your proof of claim was focused on they denied you a loan modification, you had to do a short sale, and you suffered damages as a result of that.

THE WITNESS: Um-hum. Truthfully, I didn't know that I needed to do all of that in the proof of claim. And that was just a mistake on my part. It wasn't until I started seeing -- I really didn't think it was going to go anywhere, to be honest with you. I thought I -- I had nothing to lose. I already lost my hou -- I had nothing to lose.

THE COURT: Well, you got a trip to New York. It wasn't free, unfortunately, but --

THE WITNESS: No. So I thought, well -- but I didn't know I needed to include all of that in the initial proof of claim. I guess it's just like your initial complaint. But I don't know anything about bankruptcy.

THE COURT: What kind of a lawyer did you work for?

THE WITNESS: Right now I'm working for someone that does securities fraud. And mostly I've done personal injury and civil litigation.

THE COURT: So let me -- I do want to ask you, because in your statement of position you had said that, you know, the debtors took the position that you told them you weren't working. And when I looked at the papers that they did attach, there was the financial analysis form, and it's -- let me see if I can see a date on it -- April 29th, 2008. And the first page of the form, under "Employment history", it has "Currently employed", and for one of you it says yes, and for the other it says no. And the yes is obviously for your husband, because it says "self-contractor, Paul Pfunder". And for you it has the box checked no.

THE WITNESS: And I'm sorry, what's the date on that?

THE COURT: The date -- there's a fax date on it of April 29th, 2009.

THE WITNESS: I might not have been working. My work has been up and down also. I can't say for sure.

THE COURT: I know that was a point on which you and the debtors' lawyer -- you said, oh, they said I wasn't working, and you said you were employed throughout the period.

But when I look at the document, I see this appears to be a document signed by you and your husband. On the second page, it has the signatures, April 21st, 2009, signed by both of you.
And as I say, for you it shows no under "Currently employed", no.
THE WITNESS: I don't disagree with that. What I'm referring to is 2008. In 2008, I was employed and I was making 42,000 dollars a year.
THE COURT: Okay.
THE WITNESS: I hadn't worked that full year, but at the end of that year I did earn thirty almost thirty-three thousand dollars. So I was referring to 2008. In 2009, I might not have been employed.
THE COURT: And you're working again now?
THE WITNESS: I am, part time.
THE COURT: Okay. Anything else you want to tell me?
THE WITNESS: No. You know, I'm sixty-one years old.
At this point, I don't have much possibility of owning another home.
THE COURT: Are you and your husband renting?
THE WITNESS: Yes, we are. You know, unless I buy a broken down house in Syracuse or something, you know, I
THE COURT: Oh, don't say that about poor Syracuse.

THE WITNESS: I like Syracuse, but I've looked at the homes online. But anyway, so I do feel that they were deceitful.

THE COURT: Well, when you say you thought that they're deceitful -- and I'm sure Mr. Wishnew's going to ask you about it, but let me just play devil's advocate with you about it, okay? Because you say you think they were deceitful, but what you've told me is in 2008 they denied your request for a loan modification.

THE WITNESS: Um-hum.

THE COURT: In 2009, they offered you a loan modification, which you just said it was unrealistic; you couldn't do it. Deceit ordinarily means that they lied to you or misled you, but what I'm hearing you tell me is not that -- you obviously don't agree with what they did, but you said in 2008 you applied and they said no. And in 2009 they told you, okay, you qualify, here are the terms. And you and your husband -- I'm not questioning your decision about it, but you just couldn't do it, couldn't afford --

THE WITNESS: Right.

THE COURT: -- to do it. So what's the deceit or lie that you think they told you?

THE WITNESS: In 2008, when I first contacted them by telephone, they said, oh, yeah, you know, you're working, you qualify. That was verbal. It's hearsay, just like what they have presented so far. Okay, so that was verbal. So -- and

35

1	then it didn't work out; then they denied us. So that
2	THE COURT: It was fairly quick that they denied you
3	in 2008.
4	THE WITNESS: I I think so; I'm not sure.
5	THE COURT: Okay.
6	THE WITNESS: I'm not sure.
7	THE COURT: Don't
8	THE WITNESS: Yeah.
9	THE COURT: When I ask you a question like that, if
10	you don't agree, make sure you tell me you don't agree.
11	THE WITNESS: Yeah, I'm not sure. You know, I'm
12	recollecting on this.
13	THE COURT: Okay.
14	THE WITNESS: The further thing about deceit is, well,
15	why are they trying to collect money from me if I'm in the
16	middle of a short sale? That that's not legal, as far as I
17	know. They're going to get paid from the short sale; someone
18	else is buying that home. That's part of the agreement.
19	THE COURT: One department doesn't know what the other
20	department is doing. But I'm not saying it's right or wrong,
21	but
22	THE WITNESS: Right, so I think there's where some of
23	the deceit is. But the real deceit, I think, is in approving
24	us in 2010, knowing full well, from our income taxes and the
25	documentation that we provided, that there was no way that we could make that --

THE COURT: So what would you have had them do? I mean, you're -- forgive me, you were unhappy when they denied you a loan modification, and you're unhappy when they offered you a modification, because you couldn't afford it. But that's what --

THE WITNESS: Well --

THE COURT: -- I'm having a little trouble with, okay?

THE WITNESS: -- I guess I would have been happy if they presenting us -- presented us with a modification that was reasonable and that helped both of us. A loan modification is supposed to lower your payment. That, in essence, was really not happening. Twenty dollars a month, if your income is going

THE COURT: So do you know what a HAMP modification is? Do you know about HAMP?

THE WITNESS: I do not, no.

down, is not going to make much of a difference.

THE COURT: Okay. So they offered you traditional.

I'm not sure -- there's a federal program, Home Affordable

Modification Program, and the initials, H-A-M-P, that's referred to as HAMP.

THE WITNESS: Okay. And I'm not advising you on the law, but HAMP generally does provide for a reduced interest rate, but not fixed for thirty years. It actually steps up and then ultimately fixed. So what the debtors set forth in their

	37
1	papers is, they offered you modification; it did have this step
2	up. It started at a pretty low rate, I don't know, three and a
3	half percent, but moved up in increments
4	THE WITNESS: Um-hum.
5	THE COURT: until five percent. Okay. I
6	understand you wanted a fixed
7	THE WITNESS: Um-hum.
8	THE COURT: loan. Did anybody ever tell you that
9	the loan modification program has a low rate to start but rates
10	that increase and then become fixed?
11	THE WITNESS: I don't remember it being explained to
12	me.
13	THE COURT: All right. Okay. Anything else you want
14	to tell me about? Okay.
15	THE WITNESS: I guess that's it.
16	THE COURT: Mr. Wishnew, do you want to cross-examine?
17	MR. WISHNEW: Thank you, Your Honor.
18	CROSS-EXAMINATION
19	BY MR. WISHNEW:
20	Q. Good afternoon, Ms. Pfunder. My name is Jordan Wishnew
21	from the law firm of Morrison & Foerster. We are currently
22	counsel to the ResCap Borrower Claims Trust, who is a
23	successor-in-interest to GMAC Mortgage and its other parties
24	who recently confirmed a Chapter 11 plan.
25	I wanted to go back to you

	38
1	THE COURT: Did you understand what he just told you?
2	THE WITNESS: Pretty much.
3	THE COURT: Okay. All right.
4	Q. Well, basically, it was GMAC Mortgage. Now our assets and
5	the liabilities are being addressed by two trusts; one of them
6	is a borrower trust, who is addressing your claim.
7	A. Okay.
8	Q. I want to go back to 2004, when you got the loan from
9	Quicken. You had mentioned that you previously had a fixed-
10	rate loan. Do you recall the type of loan that you obtained
11	from Quicken in December of 2004?
12	A. No, I don't.
13	Q. Might it have been a payment-option ARM loan?
14	A. Not you're talking about ten years ago, and no, I I
15	really don't remember. I do know that we refinanced in 2007.
16	THE COURT: Do you know what a payment-option ARM
17	loan do you know what an ARM is?
18	THE WITNESS: It's an adjustable-rate
19	THE COURT: Okay.
20	THE WITNESS: mortgage, correct?
21	THE COURT: All right. Yes.
22	Q. When you had the loan with Quicken, were you paying
23	principal and interest, or just interest?
24	A. I think we were paying both, but I can't be sure.
25	Q. Okay. Do you recall whether your payoff balance was

- 1 increasing on a month-to-month basis, since the time you took
- 2 out the loan with Quicken, based on the fact that you might
- 3 have been paying less than the full amount of interest? Is
- 4 that something you recall?
- 5 A. That's pro -- that might be correct. I --
- 6 Q. Okay. Okay. When you originated or when you refi'd with
- 7 Quicken, did they offer you -- or did they offer you the
- 8 ability to take a fixed loan versus an interest-only or
- 9 adjustable-rate mortgage loan?
- 10 A. I don't know. But at the time, we were taking some advice
- 11 from a financial advisor --
- 12 Q. Right.
- 13 A. -- which was not a good benefit for us, in the long run.
- 14 | Q. Okay.
- 15 THE COURT: Did you refinance with Quicken?
- 16 THE WITNESS: I don't remember Quicken specifically,
- 17 no.
- 18 THE COURT: Okay.
- 19 0. So it would seem to be that up until -- from 2004 up until
- 20 the point of the short sale, you were paying -- likely paying
- 21 only interest on the loan, is that correct?
- 22 A. That's possible, but I'm not positive.
- 23 Q. Okay. And do you recall what the monthly payment was at
- 24 that point in time. Was it --
- 25 A. I know that through some of the refinances, we originally 40 1 started out with a payment of 1,800 and something --2 Q. Um-hum. -- and went down to 1,600 -- midway in the 1,600 amount. 3 Were you paying even less than that? Maybe, like, 1,400 4 Q. 5 or6 Never. Α. 7 Q. Never? 8 THE COURT: Why did you refinance? 9 THE WITNESS: Someone advised us to do that, that it would be beneficial to us. 10 11 THE COURT: Okay. 12 And when you reached out -- so the debtors -- you don't 13 dispute Ms. Horst's declaration that there was a forbearance 14 plan; they asked -- they, GMAC Mortgage, asked you to continue 15 making payments at the amounts you were paying on a monthly 16 basis, correct? And in exchange, we -- GMAC Mortgage would not 17 pursue a foreclosure against the property. 18 I don't remember that specifically, but I can tell you 19 that they never stopped foreclosure procedure. 20 What do you mean by that? When we were getting notice of the default. 21 Α. 22 Well, notice of default is one thing. But actually, do 23 you recall them pursuing --24 It was up for a trustee sale a few times. Α.

But the sale never went forward?

41

1 Α. No. 2 They forbear from that sale. Q. I -- I guess that's what that means. 3 Α. Okay. And with regards to the modifications that were 4 Q. 5 offered to you, do you recall, did they offer to essentially keep your monthly payment the same and stop the negative 6 7 amortization on your loan? Do you understand what I mean by 8 negative amortization? 9 I do know -- I do -- I think I understand what you're I don't think they offered that, but I -- but I 10 don't -- I don't know for sure. 11 12 Okay. Do you have any reason to not believe that that is 13 what they offered, that they offered to keep your payment the 14 same and stop the negative amortization --15 I'm going to sustain my own objection to THE COURT: 16 that question. MR. WISHNEW: All right. Thank you, Your Honor. 17 18 At any point in time, the modification they were offering to you, was that a fixed-rate loan going forward? 19 20 I think that's what we were requesting, but I don't think that's what they were sending us, which is also probably part 21 22 of us not going forward with it. This is just on my

Q. Okay. Do you have any reason to dispute what is in Ms.

25 Horst's declaration that -- recollection.

23

THE COURT: I'm not going to let you ask a question in that form. If you want to put a declaration in front of her and ask her about something specifically in it, I'll let you do that.

MR. WISHNEW: Okay.

THE COURT: But I'm not going to allow you to just ask a general question about whether there's anything you don't agree with.

If you want to stay up there and ask her, there's a microphone there, or if you want to point her to something.

I'm not forcing you to do that, but -- keep the microphone in front of you. He'll speak loudly, okay?

Q. Ms. Pfunder, if you could read paragraph 19 of Ms. Horst's declaration, which has been docketed at 5 --

THE COURT: Just speak a little louder.

MR. WISHNEW: Sure.

Q. -- which has been docketed at 5548-1. Could you just take a moment, read that to yourself, and I'll ask a question if you have any reason to disagree with what's been stated there.

THE COURT: I'm going to sustain an objection to that question. What you can tell me, Ms. Pfunder -- read it and tell me whether there's anything -- when you read the paragraph, are there any statements in there -- do you agree with what's in the paragraph or there are things that you disagree with.

	43
1	THE WITNESS: I initially I haven't read the whole
2	thing. I initially disagree with
3	THE COURT: Do me a favor. Read the whole paragraph
4	to yourself, and then come back and
5	THE WITNESS: Okay.
6	THE COURT: Okay?
7	THE WITNESS: Okay. I disagree with that it would be
8	a fixed interest rate once the loan reached five percent
9	interest; I don't recall that being the case. But I'm going on
10	memory.
11	THE COURT: Okay. Do you remember that the initial
12	rate was going to be 3.125 percent?
13	THE WITNESS: No, I don't.
14	THE COURT: Okay.
15	THE WITNESS: Probably most of it is is correct. I
16	would like to point out that every time that they did ask us to
17	return loan documents, we had a tiny increment of time to get
18	it back to them.
19	THE COURT: Meaning what?
20	THE WITNESS: Sometimes five days, sometimes less. It
21	had to be certified checks. It had to be overnight mail. It
22	had much criteria to it that was on a very limited time basis.
23	THE COURT: Okay.
24	THE WITNESS: So basically, if I wanted an attorney to
25	look at these documents, I didn't have that time.

1 THE COURT: Well, did you ever pick up the phone and 2 call them and say you needed more time to look at the 3 documents? THE WITNESS: No, this particular individual I've 4 5 never heard of before today. THE COURT: Well, when you say this particular -- I 6 7 don't think it would have been Ms. Horst who --8 THE WITNESS: Okay. 9 THE COURT: -- was involved back then, but --10 THE WITNESS: Yeah. 11 THE COURT: -- you did talk to people from GMAC from 12 time to time. 13 I did, yes. THE WITNESS: 14 THE COURT: Okay. And so my question is did you ever 15 call -- if the time they were giving you to respond was too 16 short, did you ever pick up the phone and say I need another 17 week, maybe two weeks? 18 THE WITNESS: I think I did. I think there were probably times when I said, I'm pretty sure, I don't have 19 20 enough time. And I don't -- I really don't know if I got a 21 response or just a denial. I -- I can't say. I don't 22 remember. 23 THE COURT: So in this paragraph 19, at the bottom, 24 there's the word "contribution" on the last line, and there's a 25 footnote.

	45
1	THE WITNESS: Um-hum.
2	THE COURT: But in Ms. Horst's declaration, it doesn't
3	say how much the contribution was. In your
4	THE WITNESS: I can
5	THE COURT: recollection
6	THE WITNESS: I can tell you how much it was. It was
7	between seven and nine thousand dollars. I'm thinking between
8	eight and nine, if I remember correctly. It was a large sum of
9	money.
10	THE COURT: Okay.
11	THE WITNESS: So
12	THE COURT: Go ahead, Mr. Wishnew.
13	Q. Ms. Pfunder, would you agree that you and your husband
14	would have been benefitted if you had a interest-only
15	adjustable loan and it was changed to a fixed-rate loan?
16	Wouldn't that benefit you in the long run?
17	THE COURT: I'm going to sustain an objection to that
18	question. I don't know how anybody's supposed to answer that
19	question, Mr. Wishnew. You don't include enough facts, and
20	it's hypothetical, doesn't include enough facts. Be fair to
21	this witness.
22	Q. With regards to the calls, did you receive you said you
23	received calls about the short sale while it was ongoing?
24	A. Um-hum.
25	Q. And what exactly was said during those calls?

It wasn't really about the short sale. The short sale was in process, and they would call asking for a payment, the money that was in arrears. And I would inform them that they needed to -- the right hand needed to know what the left was doing, because we were in a short sale and the home was being sold. There were offers on the home. And they basically always told me they didn't care about that; they were there to collect. They were specifically looking to collect. And I -- and I told them: This is illegal. You have no right to collect any funds from me; I'm selling this home. But that never stopped the --I recognize you're not an attorney, but are you aware of a specific statute in California or a federal statute that required GMAC Mortgage to stop making ordinary collection calls, notwithstanding the fact that a short sale was in process? I -- I don't know of a specific statute. I -- I don't. Ι didn't research it, so I do not know. But I -- I do know it's pretty commonplace in California, whether or not I --With regards to your damages, again, I'm truly sorry that you lost your home and that it came to what -- you know, what happened happened. With regards to your damages, would you agree that, based upon the testimony you gave earlier about the principal balance of the mortgage as compared to the sale price, there was no equity in your home at that time? That's correct. It was -- it was upside down.

- Q. Okay. And beyond the loss of the home, do you have any other -- any separate other damages that can be quantified at this point in time?
 - A. Absolutely. I did do an itemization, and it itemizes out to about 40,000 dollars, between 30 and 40,000 dollars. We did tile work on the downstairs floor.

THE COURT: That's one of the improvements that you made?

These are -- these are -- yeah. THE WITNESS: Yes. The entire first floor was redone in tiles. We did a lot of brick work and concrete work. We did landscaping and planting of trees. We did -- my husband did granite sinks and -- and -- in all of the bathrooms. He did granite in the backyard. We -- he did overhead lights and fans throughout the entire house, electrical. We did a kitchen remodel. master bath, the floor and the sinks and the toilets. We did light fixtures -- well, I guess I said that; sorry. Let's -we did lighting in the front of the house, so that was more electrical. He did -- overdid -- he overhauled the garage. He did upgrades in the garage, dry-walling, putting in stairs, built-in cabinetries. And those are most of the things that I can think of that we did in upgrades to the home.

Q. Right, but to your point, those are upgrades to the home that hopefully enured to the overall value of the home, correct?

1 That would add to -- to -- to the value of the home, I 2 would hope. 3 Right. So --Q. THE COURT: When did you do the upgrades? 4 5 THE WITNESS: Probably over the last ten years, maybe, or maybe even before that. This was an ongoing proc -- we were 6 7 in the home for twenty-three years, so I would say from -- it 8 could be for the last ten to fifteen years that we did -- over 9 this time period that we did --10 Q. Did you do those upgrades around the time of the 2004 refinancing with Quicken loans? 11 12 I think some of them -- most of them were done before 13 I know a lot of the electrical and a lot of the brick that. work and landscaping and -- and garage work was done before 14 15 that. 16 THE COURT: When you refinanced, did you get cash out of the refinance? 17 18 THE WITNESS: We did. THE COURT: Do you remember how much? 19 20 THE WITNESS: I do. It was almost 200,000 dollars. Is that to say then that your home was probably worth over 21 22 600,000 dollars in 2000 --23 No, it was -- it was estimated -- well, the refinance 24 amount was estimated at 435 at the time. Okay. 25 Q.

25

RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL, LLC, et al.

		49
1	A. That was at the very beginning of 2007.
2	Q. Okay. Okay.
3	A. That's another point I would like to make. I think a lot
4	of this could be retribution for us taking the equity out of
5	the house, but that's just a theory.
6	Q. Retribution by whom?
7	A. By the lenders.
8	Q. Okay. But have you ever again, was to your
9	knowledge, was GMAC Mortgage the lender or the servicer?
10	A. I I think they were the servicer. You know, the loans
11	get sold so many times, sometimes you don't even know who
12	you're dealing with. As long as you make the payment, you're
13	okay.
14	Q. Right. Right.
15	A. So I don't know at this point. But we made over 450,000
16	in payments over the twenty-year period.
17	Q. Um-hum.
18	A. So
19	THE COURT: So when before you refinanced, what was
20	the approximate outstanding principal balance?
21	THE WITNESS: I I don't know. It would be a guess
22	at maybe 200,000.
23	THE COURT: Okay.

THE COURT: And so after the refinance, the balance

THE WITNESS: It would be a guess.

50

	30
1	was how much?
2	THE WITNESS: Four low fours.
3	THE COURT: Okay.
4	MR. WISHNEW: Just one minute, Your Honor. I'm just
5	going to check my notes.
6	THE COURT: Fine.
7	Q. Ms. Pfunder, do you sorry you agree that the debtors
8	made modification or a tradition sorry traditional
9	modification offers to you on two separate occasions, correct?
10	A. I believe that's correct. I'm going by the debtors'
11	documentation, and I believe that's correct.
12	Q. Okay. And it was and were you working with you were
13	working with Ms. Ortiz at the time?
14	A. Yes, Monica Ortiz was someone that was affiliated with a
15	financial advisor, and they said that they could easily get us
16	a loan modification.
17	Q. Okay. So you had a chance to consult with her before
18	declining the offer in each instance?
19	A. No, not really. They were just to be on the phone and get
20	everything working in the process. But they were they were
21	doing the legwork that I didn't have time to do anymore or
22	was was exhausted doing, over the time period. But no, I
23	I never asked them for advice as to how to proceed.
24	Q. Okay. Did you ever
25	MR. WISHNEW: Strike that, Your Honor. I have no

		51
1	further questions for this witness.
2	THE COURT: Okay. Is there anything else you want to
3	say?
4	THE WITNESS: Could I ask him a question?
5	THE COURT: Not really.
6	THE WITNESS: Oh.
7	THE COURT: But you can tell me what you want to know
8	about.
9	THE WITNESS: I want to know exactly what did the
10	contribution what was the contribution for.
11	THE COURT: I want to know that too.
12	MR. WISHNEW: May I have a minute to consult with Ms.
13	Horst, so I can try to get an answer for the Court?
14	THE COURT: Well, let's wait, because when I want an
15	answer, I want it under oath, okay?
16	Anything else you want to add?
17	THE WITNESS: I don't think so.
18	THE COURT: Okay. Are there any documents that you
19	want to introduce? When I say introduce into evidence
20	THE WITNESS: I have a copy of the three years of the
21	tax returns showing what we earned, which is my basis for them
22	trying to deceive us with this contribution and not really
23	wanting to give us a loan modification at all.
24	THE COURT: I would rather not mark your tax returns,
25	because it's sort of a public record at that point. Maybe

	52
1	if Mr. Wishnew doesn't object, maybe you could tell us what
2	your gross income was for each of those years, and without
3	going are you okay with that, Mr. Wishnew? I'd just as soon
4	not have the tax returns marked.
5	MR. WISHNEW: That's fine.
6	THE WITNESS: Okay.
7	THE COURT: Okay, just tell me the year and what the
8	gross income was.
9	THE WITNESS: Okay. 2008, our total income was
10	32,868; 2009, our total income was 9,820; 2010, the total
11	income was 10,819 dollars.
12	THE COURT: Okay. If Mr. Wishnew wants to see them,
13	I'll certain permit him to. I'd just as soon not have it
14	marked as an exhibit.
15	THE WITNESS: Okay.
16	THE COURT: And if you want it, I
17	MR. WISHNEW: That's fine, Your Honor. I'll take Ms.
18	Pfunder's word.
19	THE COURT: Okay. All right. All right. Anything
20	else that you want?
21	All right. You're excused.
22	THE WITNESS: Okay.
23	THE COURT: So I take it that when I ask if you rest,
24	that means that you've put in whatever evidence you're going to
25	put in?

1.1
	53
1	THE WITNESS: Pretty much.
2	THE COURT: Okay. All right.
3	THE WITNESS: Thank you.
4	THE COURT: Thank you.
5	Are you going to call any witnesses, Mr. Wishnew?
6	MR. WISHNEW: Your Honor, I would offer the testimony
7	of Ms. Horst as her direct, and offer her, in case Your Honor
8	has any questions.
9	THE COURT: Well, I've already sustained my own
10	objection to her declaration; it's hearsay, so that's not
11	coming in.
12	MR. WISHNEW: Okay.
13	THE COURT: She's in the courtroom, though
14	MR. WISHNEW: I mean, I'd
15	THE COURT: if you want to call her as a witness.
16	MR. WISHNEW: I'd like to run through her
17	declaration. It may be that we to the extent the Court
18	allows, we supplement the record with the servicing notes to
19	substantiate what's in there. But I would like the opportunity
20	to
21	THE COURT: Look, let me make some observations, okay?
22	And I'm prepared to go ahead and decide this matter on the
23	merits. I think my procedures order as I said earlier, I've
24	tried to do this in a streamlined fashion, recognizing that Ms.
25	Pfunder and some of the other borrowers are pro se. But I think the order was pretty clear about what the debtors are supposed to do. And the Rules of Evidence are the Rules of Evidence are the Rules of Evidence. So you're not really contending that that declaration isn't virtually entirely hearsay, are you?

MR. WISHNEW: No, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. So here are some observations.

You've got three lawyers -- four lawyers in the courtroom today; I'm including Mr. Nosek in that, and Ms. Horst. And so

I'm just looking at the meter spin for what the cost of this hearing has been to this point.

And I mean, one of several things can happen. If I'm charitable, I continue the hearing and order you to produce all of the records that are weren't produced that should have been produced, and I require the debtors to pay for Ms. Pfunder to travel across the country for a resumption of a hearing, maybe when it isn't quite so cold in New York. And then the outcome is uncertain. Or you and your client ought to go and huddle, because when you asked Ms. Pfunder what her damages were, she estimated it at 30 to 40,000 dollars. I guarantee it's going to cost you more than that if you come back. And even then, A, I'm not sure -- I might just close the record and say you've offered no evidence, and she's offered her evidence and you've offered none, and what the consequences are. But my preference is, if the parties can't resolve the matter consensually, is to resolve things on the merits. But if Ms. Pfunder has to come back, you're paying for it. She's here. She was ready to go. Yes, she didn't put in her itemization of damages, because she's been fairly specific about what it is. Whether that's recoverable as damages or not, that's a different issue.

But I don't get in the midst of settlement discussions ever, other than to encourage the parties to try to resolve matters. But what I'm looking at here is something where, at least based on Ms. Pfunder's testimony, the amount that she identified as her damages is quite modest, and you're going to spend more than that if you have to come back and you have to pay for her to come back and all of that.

So let's take a fifteen-minute recess, and you'll tell me whether you want to try and resolve the matter. And if you can do it today, that's fine. If not -- or I'll consider whether I'm going to adjourn the hearing and require you to produce all of the -- search for all of the documents that haven't been produced, provide them to Ms. Pfunder, provide them to me. After I look at them, I'll decide how we're going to proceed, whether you're going to pay for her to come back and all that. Okay? So let's take --

MR. WISHNEW: Understood, Your Honor.

THE COURT: -- a fifteen-minute recess, okay?

MR. WISHNEW: Thank you.

THE COURT: All right. I encourage you to try and 56

1	work it out.
2	(Recess from 3:19 p.m. until 3:46 p.m.)
3	THE COURT: All right. Please be seated. We're back
4	on the record in Residential Capital. This is in connection
5	with the debtors' objection to the Pfunder's proof of claim.
6	Mr. Wishnew?
7	MR. WISHNEW: Thank you, Your Honor. Jordan Wishnew,
8	Morrison & Foerster for the ResCap Borrower Claims Trust.
9	We have taken Your Honor's advice and worked with Ms.
10	Pfunder, and have reached a consensual resolution for an
11	allowed unsecured claim I'd prefer to not mention the amount
12	on the record against GMAC Mortgage.
13	THE COURT: Is the settlement going to require court
14	approval?
15	MR. WISHNEW: It will not, Your Honor. The Borrower's
16	Claims Trust has the authority, under the plan, to resolve
17	claims.
18	THE COURT: Okay.
19	MR. WISHNEW: So in that regards, we will be providing
20	Ms. Pfunder and her husband with a form stipulation that we've
21	agreed to with other similar borrowers, and execute that
22	stipulation and formalize the agreement.
23	THE COURT: All right. Ms. Pfunder, are you satisfied
24	with the resolution of the matter? Well, maybe that's the
25	wrong question to ask. Do you agree to the resolution of the

		57
1	matter?
2	MS. PFUNDER: Yes. Yes.
3	THE COURT: All right. How long is it going to take
4	you to prepare a stipulation and get it signed?
5	MR. WISHNEW: I would expect that we could have the
6	stipulation to Ms. Pfunder tomorrow; at the latest, Monday.
7	THE COURT: Okay. When are you scheduled to go home,
8	Ms. Pfunder?
9	MS. PFUNDER: Sunday evening.
10	THE COURT: Okay. So let's try and get it to her
11	tomorrow.
12	MR. WISHNEW: Okay.
13	THE COURT: Okay. So that this can get resolved
14	before she goes home.
15	MR. WISHNEW: Okay. I can also I mean, if
16	electronic mail is an acceptable substitute, we can
17	THE COURT: Well, let's see if you can get it done
18	before she goes home, okay? Because that
19	MR. WISHNEW: Okay.
20	THE COURT: And look, if it doesn't get done
21	MR. WISHNEW: Um-hum.
22	THE COURT: this proceeding is either going forward
23	quickly, or it gets very expensive if she has to come back.
24	MR. WISHNEW: Understood, Your Honor.
25	THE COURT: And I'm prepared ordinarily, the terms would be put on the record so there'd be no misunderstanding, and it would be binding on the parties.

MS. PFUNDER: Could I say something, Your Honor?

THE COURT: Go ahead, Ms. Pfunder.

MS. PFUNDER: I would prefer the amount be put on the record also.

THE COURT: Well, I understand, from the Trust's standpoint, why they don't want to do that. But here's what I'm going to insist, Mr. Wishnew, that before you leave today that you give even a handwritten piece of paper to Ms. Pfunder that sets forth the material terms of the proposed resolution, so she leaves here with a piece of paper in her hand, that if a dispute subsequently arises, she can come back and show me and say here, okay? I'm not insisting it be put on the rec -- that the amount be put on the record, but I just want Ms. Pfunder to leave with the confidence that she knows what the economic terms of the settlement are.

Is that satisfactory, Mr. Wishnew?

MR. WISHNEW: Absolutely, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Ms. Pfunder, does that help you?

MS. PFUNDER: Yes.

THE COURT: Okay. All right. I'm glad you were able to reach a resolution of the matter and we can put this to an end. So for now, what I'm going to do is adjourn the matter, and when I'm advised that a written stipulation has been entered into resolving the matter, the matter will be -- what I guess the -- what will be the disposition with respect to the claim? Will that be covered in -- I mean, will --MR. WISHNEW: So -- yes. What will happen is that the claim will be deemed allowed on the debtors' claims register, in the agreed-upon amount that we discussed. And once we execute the stipulation, we will advise KCC, the debtors' noticing and claims agent, and they will make the necessary change to the register to ensure that, going forward, there's a record of this allowed claim. THE COURT: Okay. All right. So but I want to be sure that you leave today with a piece of paper, and I do want you to get this resolved quickly so that it provides the Pfunders with some assurance about what the outcome is, all right? MR. WISHNEW: I wanted to note for the record just I do appreciate Your Honor's candor with regards to the declaration. We've taken those points under advisement, and going forward, we'll keep those in mind as we submit addition --I follow the Rules of Evidence. THE COURT: I understand, Your Honor. I understand. MR.
